Chief instructor

Master Seitoku MATAYOSHI is the most important living Okinawan practicing master of kobudo – 10-th Dan (weapons), and, at the same time, the teacher of other Okinawan masters of karate – 10-th Dan. He will be 68 this year and is in perfect physical shape. In martial arts can be the difference between the level of world champions in sport karate and the level of Okinawan masters compared to the difference between basic school pupils and university professors. The title Hanshi means something like teacher of the teachers.

The fourth visit of master Matayoshi in Slovakia is a result of a great effort combined with very good atmosphere he experienced during his previous visits, as well as the meetings of the Okinawan delegation with the president of the Slovak republic Mr. Ivan Gašparovič and officials of the city and diplomatic corps. There was no comparable visit of Okinawan master in the history of karate and kobudo neither in Slovakia, nor in Europe. Hanshi Seitoku Matayoshi teaches besides his native Okinawa only in Slovakia.
